

GP Anaesthetist

Position Description

POSITION OVERVIEW
Position	GP Anaesthetist (Rural)
Practice	The Investigator Clinic
Location(s)	86 Liverpool Street, Port Lincoln. South Australia
Date	March 2018
Practice Overview	The Investigator Clinic is a GP owned, well established rural medical practice, with a team of 16 full and part time GP's. Our team is comprised of General Practitioners, GP Obstetricians and GP Anaesthetists who have been providing a high standard of medical care to families in the community since the 1970's.
Position Purpose	The GP Anaesthetist is an independent practitioner who works as part of the primary health care team in the medical practice. The GP Anaesthetist provides GP and Anaesthetic services to the Investigator Clinic and the Port Lincoln Health Service.

Qualifications and Experience
Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ MBBS or equivalent qualification eligible for registration with AHPRA ○ Specialist or General Registration with AHPRA
CHSA Credentialing	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Eligible for CHSA credentialing as a Medical Practitioner in the clinical domain of GP Anaesthesia (general, epidural, regional, sedation, spinal, 7 years and over)
Experience	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Recent general practice experience ○ Experience in adult, obstetric and paediatric anaesthesia ○ Current experience in emergency medicine

Competencies and Skills
Key Competencies	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Demonstrate high quality clinical skill in rural general practice. ○ Respect for Confidentiality ○ Outstanding organisational and daily management skills, maintaining workload to ensure deadlines are met ○ Ability to work in a multi disciplinary team environment ○ Ability to work under pressure, handling multiple tasks simultaneously ○ Attention to detail ○ Ability to work independently with minimal direction ○ Excellent oral and written communication skills
Desirable skills	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Post graduate qualifications relevant to general practice and advanced skills in Anaesthetics

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES
Clinical	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Each week comprises 9 sessions, consulting Monday to Friday from approximately 8.30am to 5.30pm with one planned afternoon off per week and rotational Saturdays 8.30am – 11.30am. ○ The GP Anaesthetist is required to provide inpatient care for patients admitted into the Port Lincoln Health Services. ○ Elective Anaesthetic Sessions approximately 4-8 per month ○ The GP Anaesthetist also provides medical and anaesthetic services to the hospital and its emergency services as part of a roster with other GP's, GP Anaesthetists and GP Obstetricians ○ The GP Anaesthetist is expected to participate in the Anaesthetic on call roster which is shared between four other Anaesthetists in the town and be on-call to A & E at the hospital for approximately 1x 24 hour shift per month on week day and approximately 1 x 12 hour shift per month on the weekend.
Teaching	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ The Investigator Clinic is a teaching practice for the Adelaide University Rural Clinical School ○ The Practice employs and is active in the teaching of Registrars

Compliance
OHS & W	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ To comply with all OHS & W requirements of the Investigator Clinic and the Port Lincoln Hospital.
Legislative / Compliance	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ To comply with all legislative requirements ○ To complete mandatory training that has been identified as being a requirement of the position ○ To be registered and comply with AHPRA requirements ○ To have and maintain adequate Medical Defence Insurance ○ To obtain and maintain Credentialing with the Port Lincoln Health Services (Port Lincoln Hospital)
Continuous Improvement	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ To participate in continuous quality improvement ○ To comply with all Investigator Clinic Policies and Procedures

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT
GP Manager	Date	Signature
General Practitioner	Date	Signature